In the New Testament, when Lord or God is used, we need to understand that faith of Israel was based on monotheism, they only had ONE deity, so all these terms should be understood to refer to the Father. If in context, these terms are found to be related to the man from Galilee, this idea was added after 325 A.D. after the council of Nicea. Until that time, "Jesus" was not considered divine. He was made divine by the early Roman church. He became their "sun" god or Son of God.
